Read:- Proposal for the formation of Research Consortiums in Social Sciences prepared and presented by Prof. M. H. Ilias, Honorary Director of IMPSS.

ORDER

Prof. M.H Ilias, Dean (Faculty of Social Sciences) and Honorary Director Institute of Multidisciplinary Programmes in Social Sciences (IMPSS), vide paper read above, submitted a proposal for the constitution of a Research Consortium in Social Sciences with an objective to bring together people with common academic/research areas of concern from various departments in the Universities and affiliated colleges.

The Research Consortium is a formally constituted group of scholars from various statutory schools and colleges under the University whose research expertise applied either to a common area / field / theme, or scholars involved in a collaborative research project or in a set of related projects. The member of the Consortium is an individual scholar pursuing independent projects in the related area or field or a scholar pursuing collaborative research as part of a team.

Each consortium is under the administrative control of the Institute of Multidisciplinary Programmes in Social Sciences (IMPSS) lead by the Head of the Consortium. It is faculty driven and contains minimum of three scholars working on a common theme or in a common area of study.

The above proposal was approved by the Honb'le Vice-Chancellor on 08.07.2022.

Orders are issued accordingly.
